FYI I had the talk with Terry yesterday and to her credit, she took it very well. Thanks for your support ☺

Hi Ellen,

Thank you for lunch yesterday and for the talk. I'll try and be more thoughtful of how I am communicating in meetings, and if you'll help me, it will be a win/win. I'll gain better skills, and be able to better serve the BID.

I think I remember what we may have been whispering about during your speech. It was not your delivery, it was a small piece of content. The stat on increased weeds amused us. Other than pot shops, we couldn't figure out what would account for that in South Park.

Also, I was at Olympic and Olive during the DCBID tour. I think you have seen it, too. They have a terrific "party deck" area that they are happy to let the BID use for meetings or community events.

Keep me posted if anything comes of the Barcito "pop up" concept at the USC building. It will give us a newish lunch location!

Just a reminder, I am still interested in a "ride along" next time you do one, and also walking the BID perimeter sometime.

I will let you know when we go to the car show.

Thanks again,
Terry
